

Documentation on video sharing

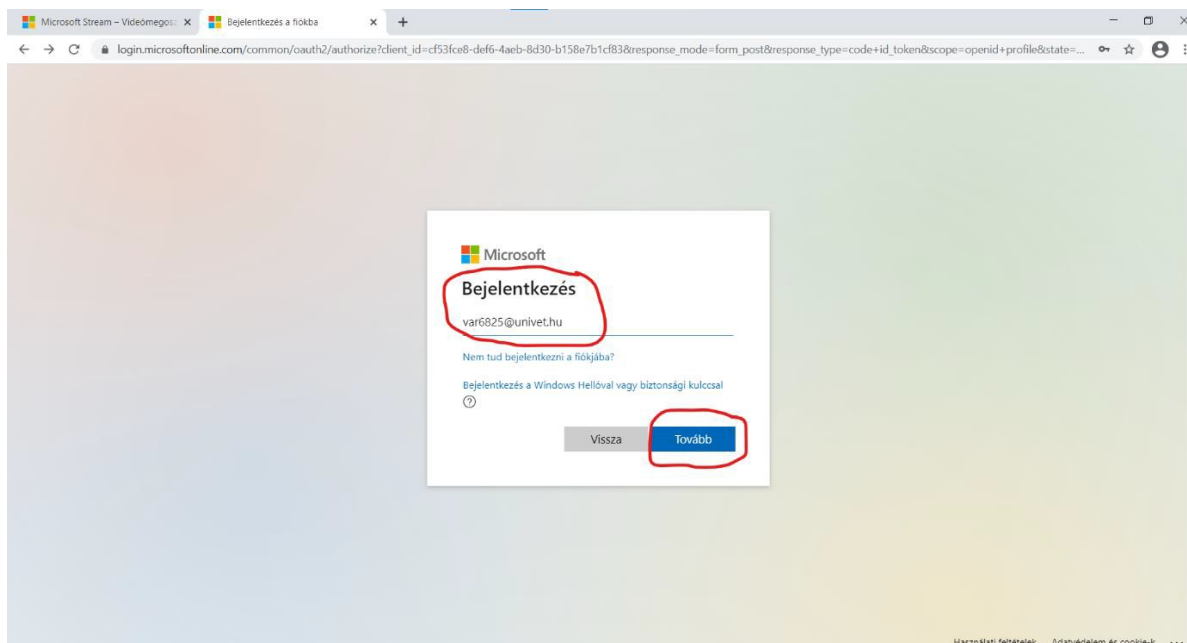

If you want to access videos, first you need to go the Microsoft Stream website by clicking the link below:

<https://www.microsoft.com/hu-hu/microsoft-365/microsoft-stream>

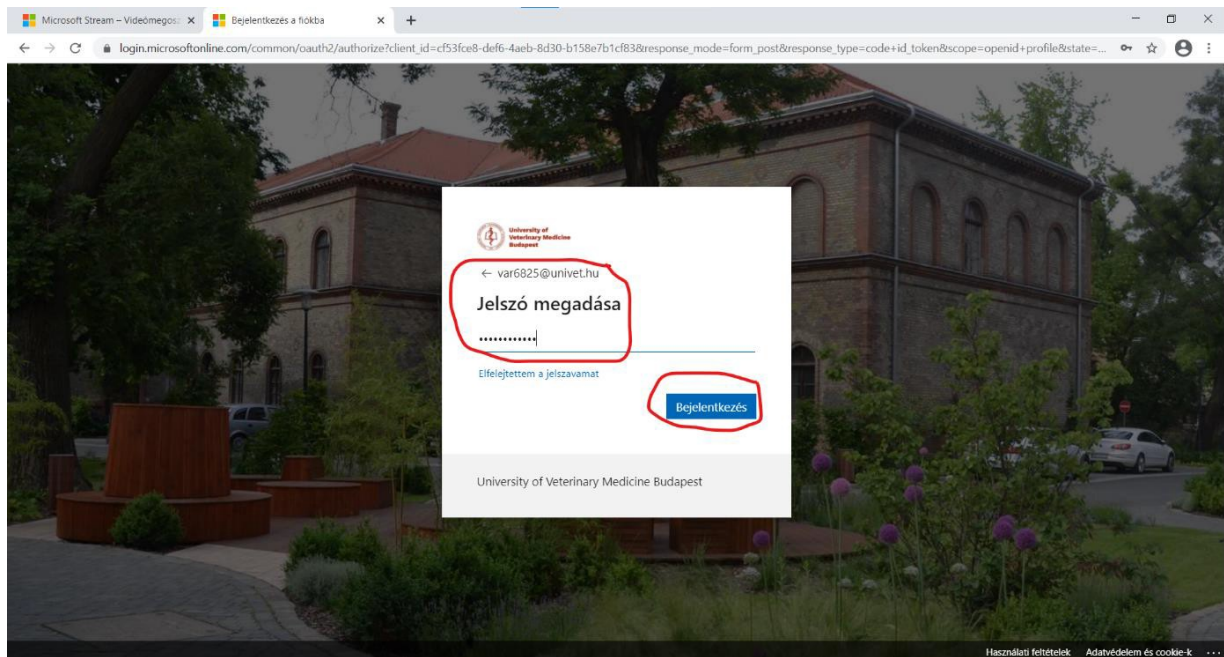

Once you have reached the requested website, sign in with your University E-mail and password:

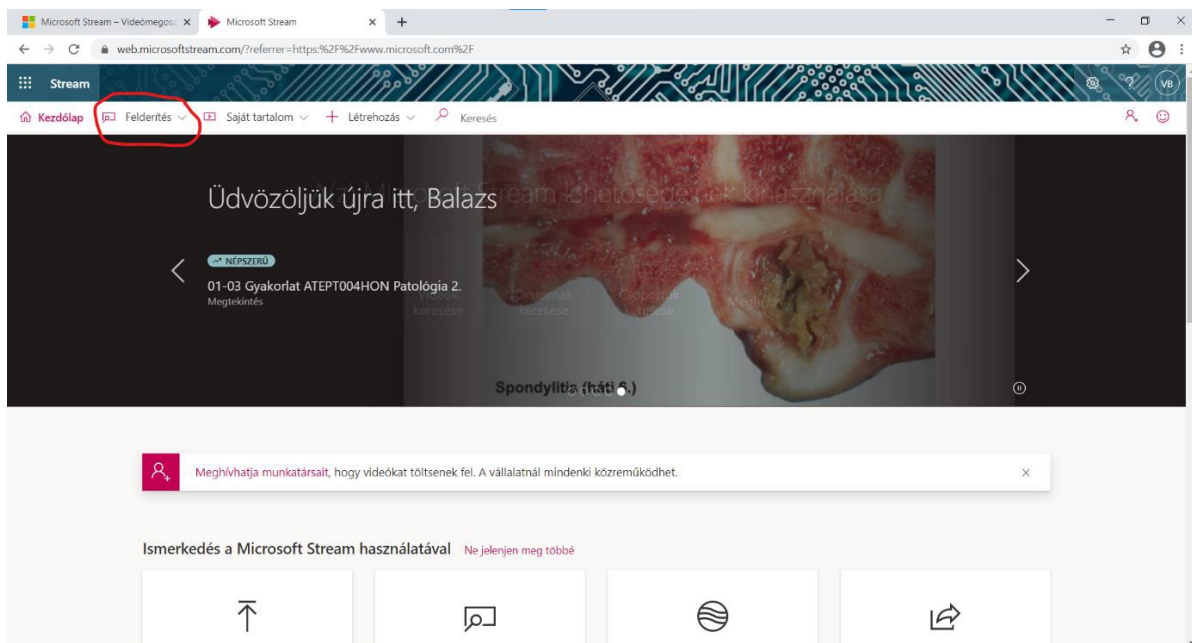

When logging in, enter your Univet e-mail and click on the Continue button:

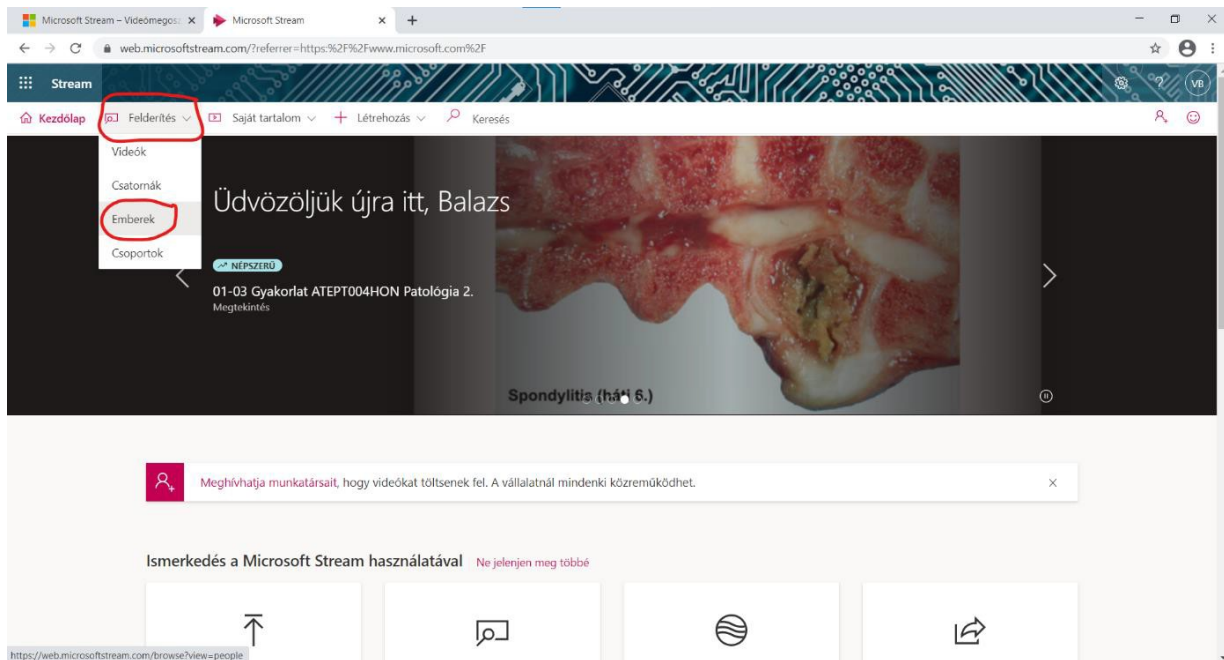

Then enter the related password and click on the Sign in button:

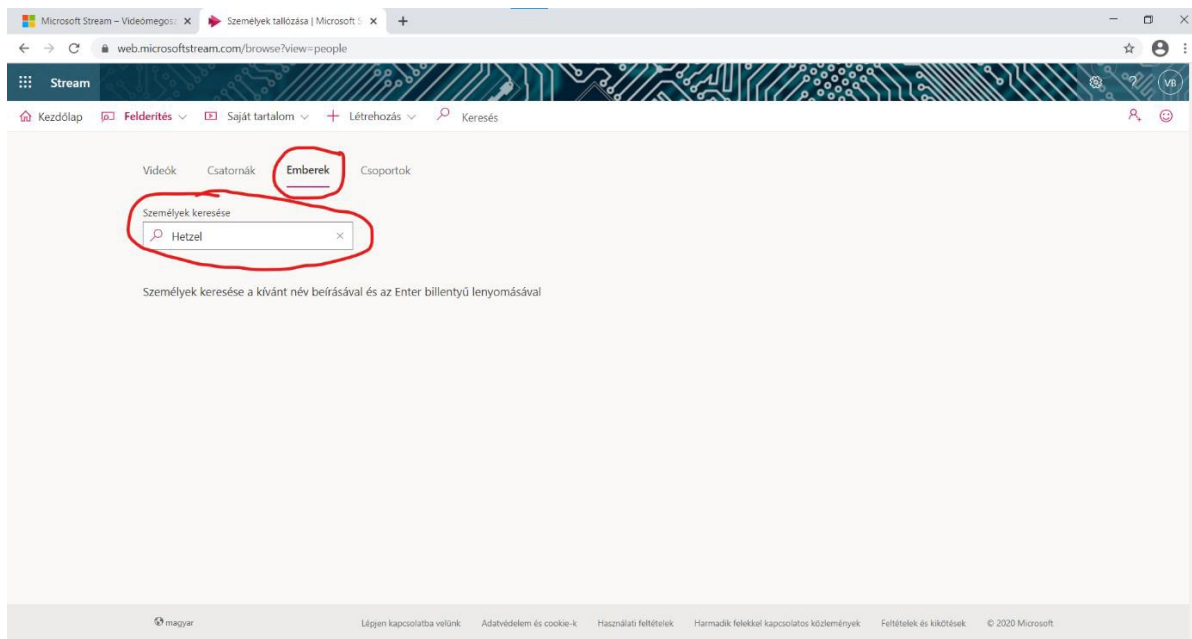

Once you are signed in, the system takes you to the home page with the Search option in the top left corner:

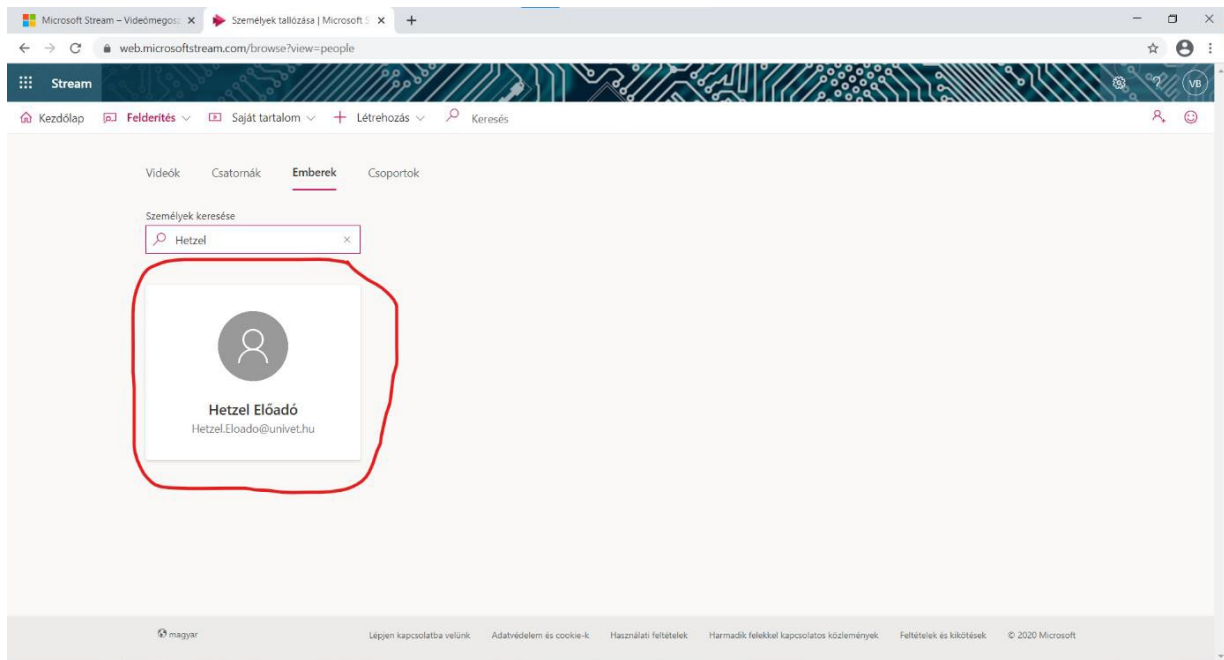

If you click on the Search button, a menu pops up. Select the People option from this menu:

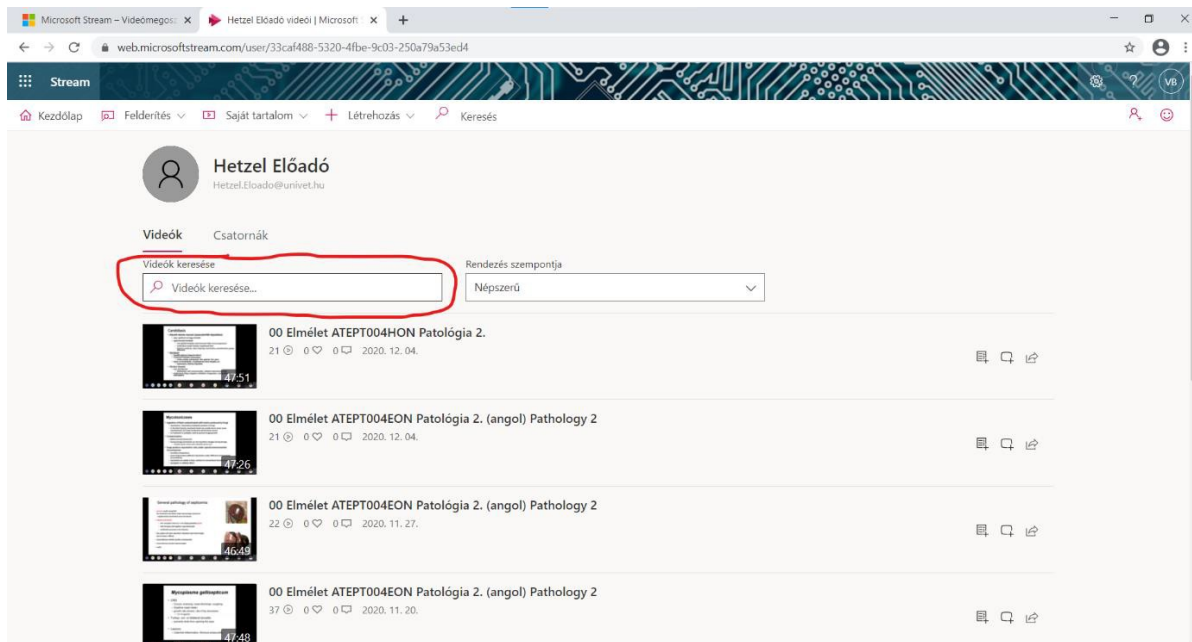

Then search for the lecture hall where the given lecture was held (in this case the Hetzel Lecture Hall) and press enter to search for the lecturer:

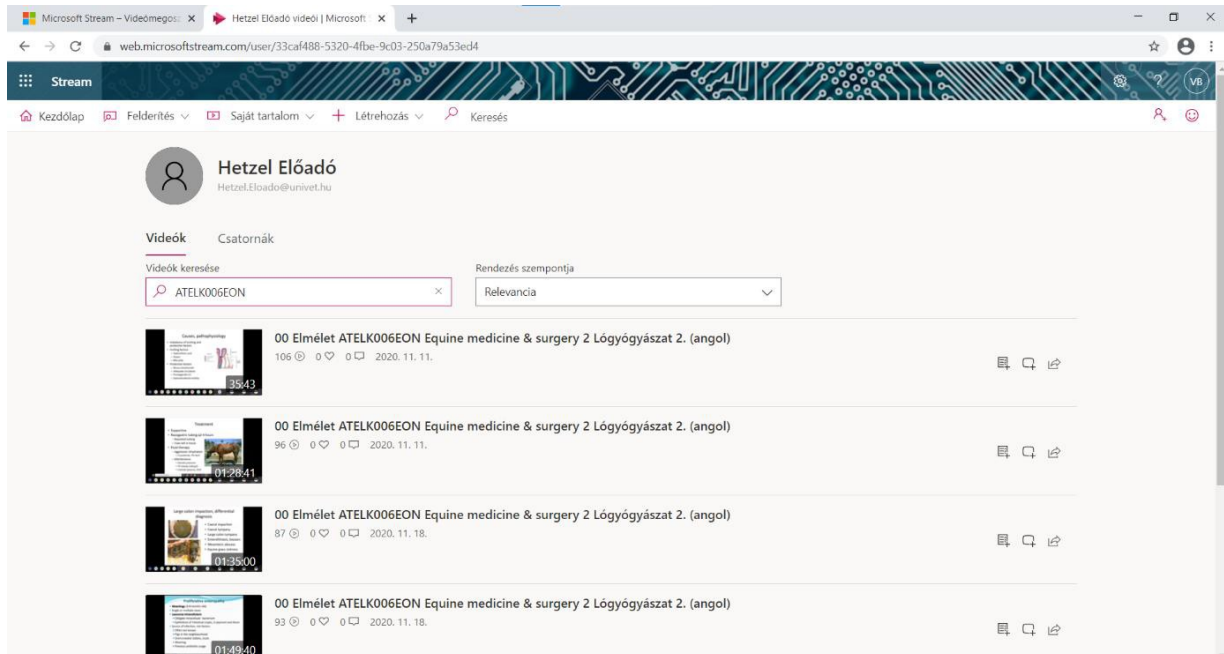

If you press enter, the system will show you the given lecture hall. Click on it to enter the hall:

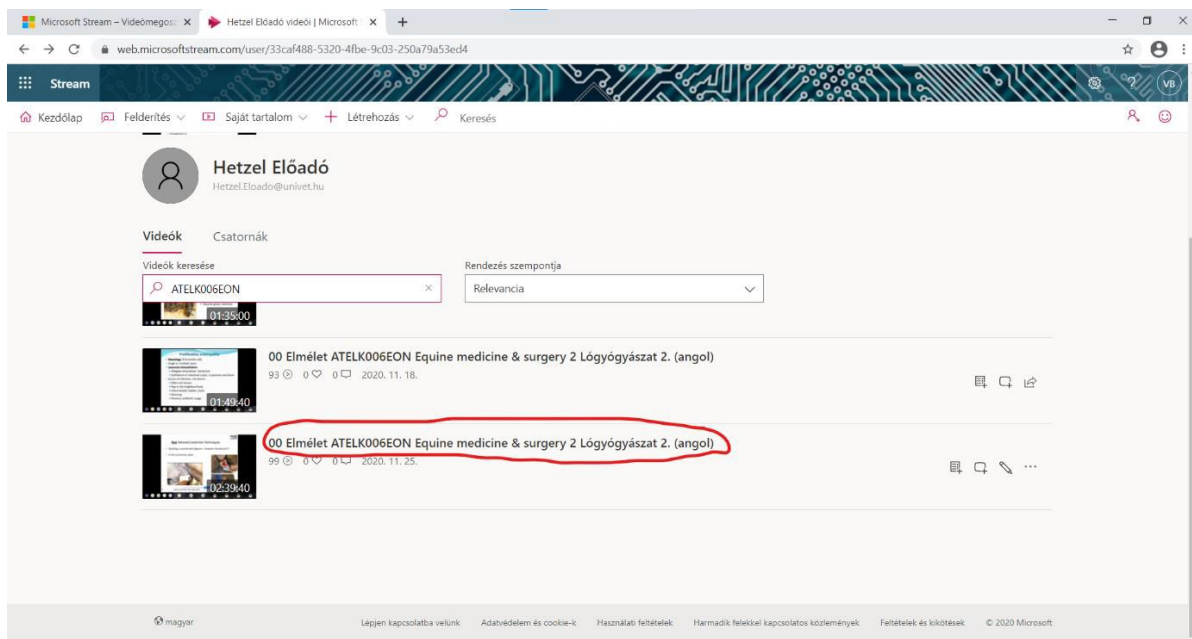

The system lists all the lectures streamed in this Lecture Hall:

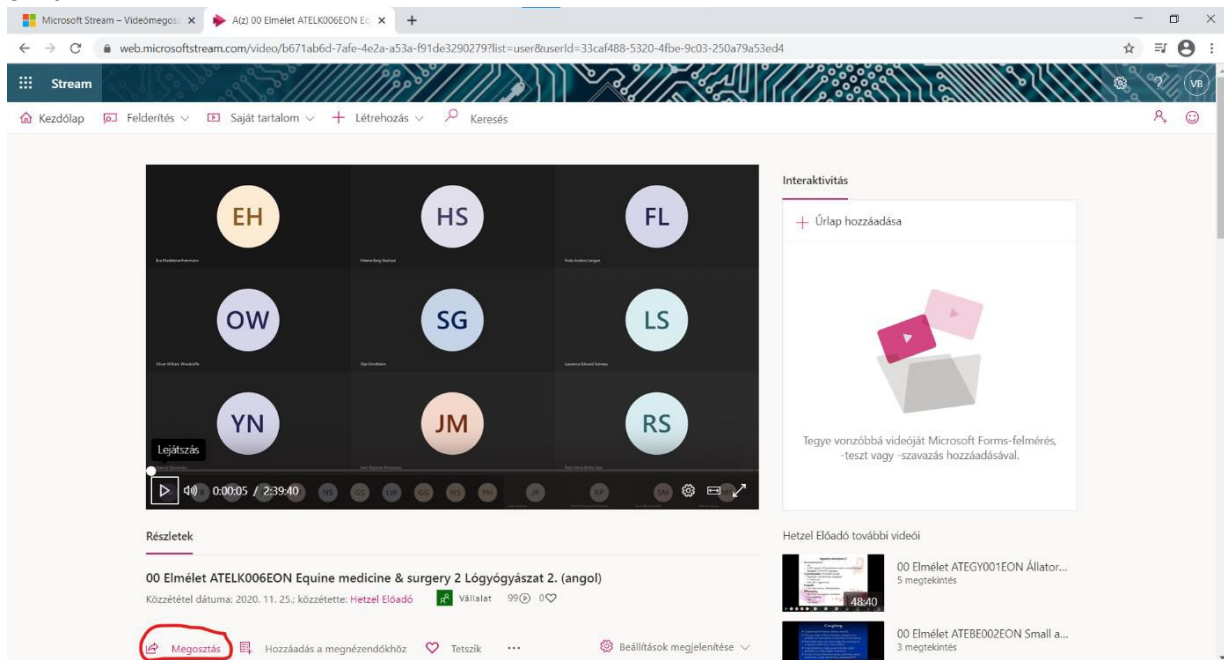

Type the Neptun code of the given subject into the “Search videos” field, and then press enter to list the lectures belonging to this Neptun code:

Select the lecture you need and click on its Title:

The system will take you to the page of the given video where you can select the Share option and click on it:

The pop-up window will give you a link which allows you to watch the video. You can copy, save and paste the link into the Moodle e-learning system:
